

This internship report is part of the fulfillment for the award of Diploma public health of international health Sciences University which is conducted at the end in the final year.

This internship was conducted at VSO international and its main objective was to expose the students to practical skills and get acquainted with field situation and acquire practical skills

Chapter one; provides information about the area the internship was carried out i.e. background, organization structure, mission, and the objectives of the training.

Chapter two; displays the work plan followed during the internship.

Chapter three; shows the tasks done by the student and the lessons learnt by the student.

Chapter four; shows the challenges faced, the recommendations and general conclusions.